

Office of Career Services and Alumni Relations
Fall 2018 Events Calendar

Career Development Essentials Workshop

Attend this workshop to learn about the career development essentials: resume, cover letter, interviewing and networking. This interactive evening workshop will cover necessary information on these topics while giving you the opportunity to update your materials and answer questions.

Monday, September 24, 6:00-8:00PM

OmniCom Health Group Information Session

Join this information session to learn about the OmniCom Health Group Fellowship Program. OmniCom Health Group is one of the largest healthcare communications network and an advertising agency. The Human Resources team will be sharing information about this alternative career path and the application process.

Friday, November 2, 1:00-2:00PM

NYC DOHMH Information Session

Learn about the career opportunities available at the NYC Department of Health & Mental Hygiene. The Human Resources department will be sharing information on the application process as well as current open positions.

Friday, November 2, 2:00-3:00PM

Networking Mixer

Mingle and network with industry professionals and alumni to learn about career opportunities and expand your professional network. More information to follow with a list of professionals who will be in attendance from various organizations.

Friday, November 2, at 3:00-7:00PM

Webinar Series

Join us for a virtual session to learn and sharpen your skills to aid with finding your next career opportunity. Each session focuses on a different topic related to the job or internship search process.

Writing Effective Resumes & Cover Letters

Wednesday, September 5, 8:00PM

Using Vault for Career Transition

Tuesday, October 2, 8:00PM

Job Searching for International Students

Wednesday, October 17, 12:00PM

Networking to Build Your Career

Thursday, November 1, 8:00PM

Navigating the Interview and Salary Negotiation Process

Monday, December 3, 5:00PM