

Graduation and Retention Rates of Entering Student Cohorts by Academic Plan

| Academic Plan* | Cohort Entry Year | # of Students in Cohort | % Graduated Within 5 Years | % Graduated Total |
|-------------------------------|-------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------|
| Master of Public Health (MPH) | 2013-2014 | 147 | 81.0% | 81.0% |
| | 2012-2013 | 130 | 79.2% | 83.1% |
| | 2011-2012 | 115 | 77.4% | 80.9% |
| Master of Science (MS) | 2013-2014 | 7 | 57.1% | 71.4% |
| | 2012-2013 | 10 | 70.0% | 70.0% |
| | 2011-2012 | 8 | 75.0% | 87.5% |

| Academic Plan* | Cohort Entry Year | # of Students in Cohort | % Retained After 1 Year |
|-------------------------------|-------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| Master of Public Health (MPH) | 2017-2018 | 170 | 87.6% |
| | 2016-2017 | 118 | 89.8% |
| | 2015-2016 | 151 | 88.1% |
| Master of Science (MS) | 2017-2018 | 10 | 100.0% |
| | 2016-2017 | 6 | 100.0% |
| | 2015-2016 | 9 | 100.0% |

Notes:

- a. The Doctor of Public Health (DPH) program is no longer accepting applicants; the Doctor of Philosophy in Public Health (PhD) will be offered in Fall 2019, and graduation and retention rates will be presented when available.